What is a Deacon?

On Saturday 31st June our new Curate, The Revd Chris Clayton, was ordained Deacon at Ripon Cathedral. This immediately raises the question: how can he be a Curate and a Deacon at the same time, and what is a Deacon anyway?

The office of a Deacon originates in the Book of Acts, when the Apostles set apart seven individuals to assist with charitable work. These days, in the Anglican Church, those who are beginning ordained ministry are ordained Deacon at the start of their training post (which we call their 'curacy') and, after about a year, are ordained Priest (while continuing to be a Curate). The training post usually lasts for between three to four years.

During his first year Chris won't be conducting weddings or presiding at Holy Communion, but over the course of the whole curacy he will be taking the opportunity to gain experience of many different aspects of church life.

It is a great privilege to be involved in the training of a new Curate. We have the opportunity, as a whole church community, to resource and inform many years of future ministry. The period of their curacy is a time that Vicars never forget! Let's continue to pray for Chris and his family that God would bless them richly, and that they would receive every good gift that God wants to give during the course of this foundational experience.

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's

So far, she has raised just over £740 for the next Alpha Course at St Peter's and for Compassion UK. If you would like to make a donation or hand in your sponsor money please contact her on 07879 877353 or at helenudy@ntlworld.com.

Amnesty UK - Reunite Refugee Families Petition

Did you know that many refugee families coming to the UK are being forced apart? Current UK laws governing the rights of refugees are restrictive and unfair. They deny child refugees the right to bring their parents to the UK; they mean that parents have to leave behind their children even if they have only just turned 18; and they mean that elderly parents are left behind in war torn countries to fend for themselves. In March, Angus MacNeil MP introduced a Bill proposing the necessary changes to bring more refugee families together. The Bill passed with an overwhelming majority, but now we need the government to implement these changes. The new Home Secretary, Sajid Javid, has the power to do this. Please sign Amnesty UK's petition urging him to reunite more refugee families at www.amnesty.org.uk/actions/home-secretary-reunite-refugee-families.
