Celebrating 70 years of NHS care

On 29th July there was a special service at Ripon Cathedral to celebrate 70 years of the NHS. During this service we heard read out the testimony of a 91 year old Bradford man who knew about medical care in the days before it was available to all.

We also heard an extract from a speech by Aneurin Bevin reflecting on the NHS in 1959. The service also included reflections on the NHS by a doctor, a patient and a chaplain. I was asked by the Chaplaincy at Harrogate Hospital to give this reflection which I was honoured to do.

'I don't know' is one of the hardest phrases for patients to hear, but it can be even harder for medics to say. Chaplains find themselves saying 'I don't know' a lot but at our best we allow space around these words for tenderness, reverence and humility to emerge out of the not knowing.

I was impressed when our line manager at the time, an atheist, insisted the then part-time Chaplain be replaced by a full-time Chaplain at the hospital. He recognised the special place a sympathetic, listening ear has within the system for patients, staff and visitors alike.

Just as Jesus acquainted himself with cleaning the dust of the road, so Chaplains are gently touching the accumulated wounds of a lifetimes journeying.

I find it an immense privilege to be trusted with this particular ministry.

Sue Pearce, Assistant Priest at St Peter's and Hospital Chaplain

Organ Recital with John Longstaff

Thanks to some very kind donations we are able to start work on the most urgent repair to our Schulze organ. The cost of this particular repair is £5,000, but less pressing repairs will need to be done soon. To help raise funds for this there will be an organ recital by John Longstaff, our Director of Music, playing familiar and well-loved organ music on Bank Holiday Monday 27th August at 2:30 pm. Tickets cost £10, which includes a scrumptious cream tea, and are available from the Parish Office, Choir members or on the door. Please support this fundraising event!

St Peter's Players next production announced!

Our drama group's next production will be Joseph and his Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat with performances on 25th, 26th and 27th October. Joseph's brothers are played by some very talented children, and the all-star cast includes Emma Robinson, Oliver Longstaff and a special guest appearance by none other than the Revd Dr Alan Garrow! The well-loved music will be played by a live band led by Ben Vaux, with Tim Boatfield on drums. Singing rehearsals during June were a great success thanks to Jude Williamson, and we start rehearsing again on 3rd September. We have made significant changes to the staging so as to minimise any negative impact on the usual Church activities. Please make a note of the dates - you may want to see it more than once!

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

or

God of glory, the end of our searching, help us to lay aside all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom, and to give all that we have to gain the pearl beyond all price, through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

How do you teach young people about modern slavery?

Free resources to be released in September will help schools teach children about modern slavery. This is a result of collaboration between The Clewer Initiative, a Church of England project, and Just Enough UK, an educational charity. The resources will include lesson plans, ideas for collective worship, and guides for teachers. They are designed to raise awareness of modern slavery amongst the UK's young people, and make them aware that they themselves could be at risk of being victims of this crime. To find out more visit www.theclewerinitiative.org/schools.

Refreshments are served after each of our Sunday morning services from the kitchen area at the front of Church. Please come and join us.

Green Your Life

eco tip of the week

August – in the car

When driving the most efficient speed depends upon the car in question but is typically around 55 - 65mph, faster speeds will greatly increase your fuel consumption. Slow down and allow a little more time for journeys.

New to St Peter's? Please fill in one of the welcome cards in the pews and hand it to one of the clergy.
