Come to know: inter-national

Come to know is a series of art installations in the Glass Foyer here at St Peter's, curated by Shaeron Caton-Rose. During Lent the first exhibition, A Place at the Table, featured a large-scale version of Iain Campbell's painting Our Last Supper, surrounded by drawings of members of St Peter's Breakfast Club made by local artist Shirley Hudson.

The current exhibition is called inter-national, and features three works by Yorkshire artist Eva Mileusnic (left), which highlight and embrace the diversity of the cultural and national identities of the UK. Both Eva's parents were refugees and came to Britain in the 1950s from Hungary.

Eva explains, "The word 'lasts' is an old English word for 'footprint', which made me think about the journeys taken by migrants and the subsequent movement of cultural traditions worldwide. That is when I set off on my own journey; collecting various sizes and shapes of iron cobbler's lasts that are used in shoe repair and manufacture. What initially started off as a series of exhibitions of white porcelain feet has developed as my ideas and inspirations have grown. Traditional world textile patterns are something that I am drawn to, and that's when I started experimenting, by first decorating a pair of ceramic 'feet' with Hungarian traditional flower motifs."

The inter-national exhibition opened yesterday and runs until 22nd July. Please visit the Come to know page of St Peter's website to find out more about these first two exhibitions and to view the full A Place at the Table photo gallery.

Walking through God's beautiful countryside

Helen Harrison writes, "Our 2022 St Peter's Parish Walk went ahead as planned on Saturday 11th June and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who took part, including our two special four-legged friends, Roma and Ruby! This year: Mo Atkinson, Jan Edwards, Bethany Harrison, Helen Harrison, Rebecca Harrison, Chris Ivory, Sarah Martin, Catherine Medforth, Gillian Sinclair, Carole Raw with Ruby and Roy Taylor with Roma took part. The sun shone and we were truly blessed as we walked through God's beautiful countryside and as we paused to pray for the churches and communities on our route. Just like last year, Richard Harrison arrived at various junctions with water and snacks and to provide lifts back to Harrogate."

*The Parish Walk raises funds for St Peter's Church – if you would like to donate please visit Helen's Just Giving page or put any cash donations in an envelope marked Parish Walk in the perspex Donations Box. THANK YOU!

St Peter's Evening Fellowship: Laurence Sterne and Shandy Hall

Our next meeting will be held on Thursday 7th July at 7.30pm in the Brostoff Hall. You may recall that we had planned to make a trip by coach to Beckett Street Cemetery in Leeds in conjunction with U3A, however there was an insufficient response to enable us to go ahead and hire a coach.

We are delighted to confirm that Patrick Wildgust, the Curator of Shandy Hall, who was intending to make a presentation entitled: Laurence Sterne and Shandy Hall, but suffered a car breakdown on his way to St. Peter's in May, has kindly agreed to be the speaker. Laurence Sterne lived in Shandy Hall, a grade 1 listed building, from 1760 to 1768 as perpetual Curate of Coxwold while enjoying frequent journeys to London to promote his writings, probably his most famous being 'The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman'. Members are most welcome to bring along guests, contact Richard Bion (07966 073867 or richard.bion@talktalk.net).

A message from Chris Clayton

I wish to say a massive thank you on behalf of my family and I, to everyone who made my Licensing such a wonderful day. Thank you to all the volunteers who provided food, time and energy to make the day so special, especially Hannah Beck. A big thank you to John Longstaff and the choir for sharing their amazing gifts and providing such wonderful worship. I would also like to say a special thank you to Bishop Helen-Ann and Alan Garrow for all your support and guidance over the last four years, you have both helped me become a better servant. Finally, I want to say thank you to every member of St Peter's. The last four years have been amazing, and that is down to each one of you, your support, your kind words and your commitment to God has made the decision to stay a very easy one. I hope that I can continue to serve you all the way that God calls me to. God Bless, Chris.

Swopping The Fens for the Isle of Man

Unfortunately, Covid 'spiked' during the TT race week on the Isle of Man, so Helen was unable to visit her family and walk the Manx Parish Walk as planned. As she had already committed herself to walk to raise funds for St Peter's, she (and her brother Peter) devised a 'Fenland Walk' around her childhood home in Boston, Lincolnshire on the same day, 18th June, instead. This was approximately 22.5 miles long and included 8 churches, where their father, The Revd John Udy, served as a Non-Stipendiary Priest for 26 years. Helen enjoyed walking on the familiar flat land, listening to the birds around her, praising God for the wonderful crops growing in the enormous fields and praying for the churches and communities she visited. Peter supported Helen by arriving at each church with refreshments and taking photos.
