The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

St Peter's Church, Cambridge Road, Harrogate, HG1 1PB

Today is Climate Sunday

Why have we been so deaf to the evidence of climate change and its unfolding consequences, so slow to work out what changes must be implemented to restore balance and so stubborn in avoiding taking the practical micro-actions in our daily lives that would make a difference, however small?

Perhaps the phrase 'inconvenient truth' is revealing. It was used by those engaged in bringing climate change up the international agenda fifteen years ago to challenge the unresponsiveness of governments, industries and individuals. For these mostly carried on with political, business and consumer practices that ignored the evidence - because changing from these did not and does not suit us.

The God we worship is a God of justice who cares for those who suffer as a result of the actions or inaction of others: supremely by sending Jesus as saviour to bring good news to the poor, proclaim release to the captives, let the oppressed go free. Every day of our lives we seek to join with God in this work of doing justice (Micah 6 v 8).

Now the urgent need is to prevent or alleviate the suffering that the poor and disadvantaged are experiencing due to climate change, as it will have the earliest and greatest impact on these people. That's doing justice. So too is anticipating the effects on our children's children and changing the way we meet our needs of the present so as not to compromise the ability of future generations to meet their own needs. Truth and justice are our business as Christians: what steps are you going to take to try and set things right?

Nations' Climate Sunday Service

and online

A Nations' Climate Sunday Service

At 3:30 pm today churches from across Britain and Ireland will come together online and in Glasgow Cathedral to celebrate, challenge and commit ahead of COP26. More than 1,600 churches, including St Peter's, have registered their Climate Sunday service on this Churches Together website. For details of how to join in with the service in Glasgow online visit www.climatesunday.org.

Praying for the UN Climate Change Conference

COP 26 takes place this November 2021 in Glasgow. There are four key goals for COP 26. They include countries providing more ambitious climate plans, adaptation measures to protect the environment, agreeing on finance to support poorer countries and agreeing a rule-book to guide their future collaboration.

We pray that negotiators and diplomats will be united in their determination to resolve on-going issues and focus with determination on moving forwards in agreement. We pray for the preparations for this summit and for all the meetings that will take place. We pray above all for those formulating national policies: Lord, grant them vision and ambition.

Come and paint Dickensian London!

The next production for our drama group, St Peter's Players, is the musical OLIVER! running from 4th – 6th November 2021 here at St Peter's Church. The actors have been cast and rehearsals start on Monday. Now they are looking for scenic artists to help create the scenery – the London of Charles Dickens. If you have any artistic talent and would like to join the crew, please speak to John Hain, the Director (and also playing Fagin, my dears), or email him at jmhhain@gmail.com.

Harrogate School of Theology & Mission

Stephen Cottrell, Archbishop of York, speaks on Travelling Well: A Theological Reflection on the Place of Pilgrimage in the Christian Life

The first lecture of the new season is at St Mark's Church on Saturday 25th September 2021, starting with a continental breakfast served from 9:30 am, then the lecture from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm. Tickets cost £8 per session or £25 for the series of four (students £5 per session or £15 for the series) including breakfast and refreshments. Fees payable preferably in advance by the online booking system Eventbrite or on the day by contactless card or cheque.

Say it with Flowers

Why not mark a special occasion, such as an anniversary or birthday, by making a donation towards the flowers in Church? The St Peter's Flower Team will make an arrangement on the pedestal to the right of the altar, and you will also receive a mention in the Weekly News. Please speak to Sue Heapy for further details (07540 355305) or send her an email brynsusie@hotmail.com.

Could you lead the prayers at one of our services?

Shortly after coming to St Peter's Church, I contacted various people in Church to ask if they might be willing to put together intercessions for our services. As you will have realised, people were more than willing to do this, and I was able to set up rotas. The time has come for me to hand this ministry over to someone else, and I am pleased to say that Catharine Davies has agreed to do this.

Please do consider becoming a member of the team, especially at the 11:00 am Choral Matins service. If you feel you would be able and happy to do this, please contact Catharine, either by filling in one of the volunteer forms, or speaking to her in person after one of the services.

I wish Catharine every joy in taking on this valuable role.

It's Education Sunday on 12th September

Education Sunday is a national day of prayer and celebration for everyone involved in the world of education. The theme for Education Sunday this year will be 'A Word in Season', a phrase taken from Isaiah 50 v 4:

EDUCATION SUNDAY

2021: A Word in Season

The Lord God has given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary.

When pupils are struggling, they need help and support not to give up. When pupils are doing well, they need some approbation. A word of encouragement or praise at the right time and from the right person can fire them up to persevere or to do even better. Teachers' encouragement was particularly important during lockdown when pupils spent many hours alone at home with only online contact.

We must express our thanks to the teachers who have gone the extra mile during lockdown. They have supported home-learning online, while continuing to keep schools open, initially for our vulnerable children and children of key workers, and then for pupils in bubbles that were free from Covid. They have had to work harder and been on call for longer, while returning to schools before their turn had come to be vaccinated. Teachers do all this for their pupils, not expecting any gratitude. But they too are weary, and a word of thanks and understanding will go a long way.

After the challenges of the last eighteen months, it is clear that those who teach are as much in need of an encouraging 'word in season' as those who learn from them.

Reflections: walking through loss

PREGNANCY LOSS TRAINING

Would you like to be equipped to walk alongside people in their grief?

Reflect is a free support service in North Yorkshire for anyone facing a pregnancy choice and for those in need of support after experiencing pregnancy or neonatal loss. They are looking for volunteers to train to provide their structured support programme Reflections: walking through loss for those struggling after a pregnancy or baby loss, from any cause. This will be a combination of nine Zoom and three in-person training sessions starting on Monday 4th October 2021. The course costs £80 (if this would prohibit you from training, a grant may be available). For more information visit <https://reflectyork.co.uk/>.
